

MARC STRAUS NEW YORK

artnet® news

Editors' Picks: 9 Things to See in New York This Week

Caroline Goldstein, April 30, 2018

Doug Argue, Footfalls Echo in the Memory (2017). Courtesy of the artist and Marc Straus Gallery.

“Doug Argue” Gallery Show & Artist Talk with Donald Kuspit at Marc Straus Gallery

Art critic Donald Kuspit will be in conversation with artist Doug Argue, on the occasion of Argue's first solo show with the gallery. Argue's large-scale paintings begin with universally recognizable images and scenes of iconic artworks—Picasso's Demoiselles d'Avignon, for instance—but with a veil of abstracted letters superimposed on top.

Doug Argue's solo show at Marc Straus is on view through May 20.

Location: 299 Grand Street

Price: Free

Time: Artist talk, 3 p.m.; Wednesday–Sunday, 11 a.m.–6 p.m.

Original Source: <https://news.artnet.com/art-world/editors-picks-april-29-1266950>